

DIVE LOG

DATE: _____ DIVE #: _____ BUDDY: _____

DIVE LOCATION: _____ PURPOSE OF DIVE: _____

AIR TEMP: _____ WEATHER: _____

TANK CAP (CU.FT.): _____ @ PSI : _____ WIEGHT BELT: _____

PSI IN: _____ PSI OUT: _____ PSI USED: _____

TIME IN: _____ TIME OUT: _____ BOTTOM TIME: _____

SURFACE CONDITIONS: _____ WATER TEMP SURF: _____ AT DEPTH _____

VISIBILITY AT DEPTH: _____ MAX DEPTH: _____

SAFETY STOP PLANNED: _____ SAFETY STOP TAKEN: _____

REPETITIVE DIVE GROUP START: _____ END DIVE: _____ SURFACE INTERVAL: _____

R - _____

A - _____

T - _____

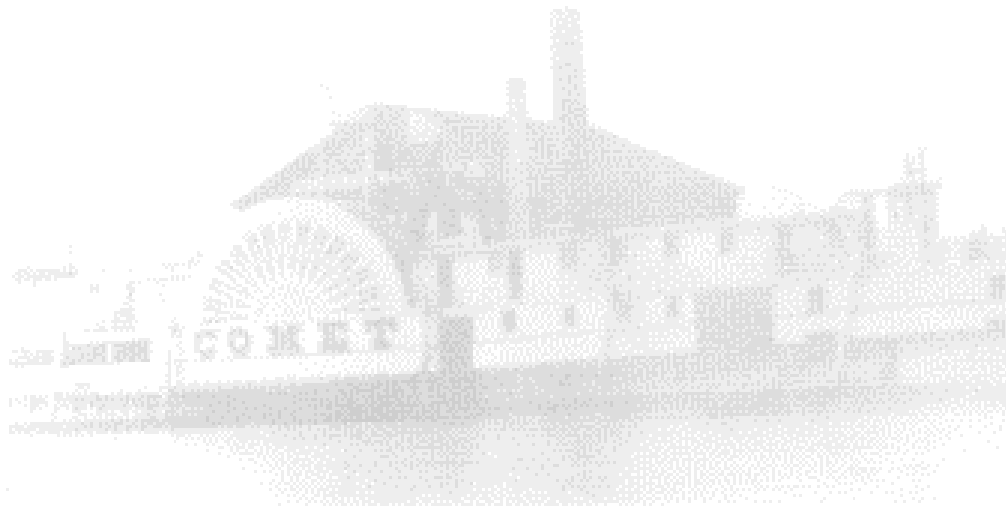

BOTTOM TIME FROM THIS DIVE: _____

ACCUMULATED BOTTOM TIME: HOURS: _____ MINUTES: _____

BUDDIES
SIGNATURE:

COMMENTS

The Comet is a 174 feet long wooden steamer built in Kingston in 1848. The ship was lost in a collision with the schooner Exchange on May 15, 1861. Today the wreck lies in 75 feet of water and is largely intact with twin 30 ft paddle wheels that rise vertically from the lake bottom.

Courtesy of www.northerntechdiver.com